Dear Professor Chen,

I have just received your letter dated on September 15th. I Thank wholeheartedly you for your kind generosity to have undertaken troubles for my sake.

I further Thank you for making me to have connections with eminent Chinese linguists. I find no proper words to Thank you for all you have done for me. After having secured your address from your Embassy in Stockholm, I could write you to Thank you ^{only} a few days ago. I will certainly Thank Professor Lo Chang-pai (羅常培) for his generosity to have given me such valuable books as Kuang yüen (廣韻, 4²本).

As mentioned in my previous letter, I would like to send you some books or journals as a token of my sincere gratitude to you.

I also appreciate you for your kindness to propose to send me some complimentary copies of "China Reconstructs". As a matter of fact, I have been thirsty for news on the growth and reconstruction of New China, our great neighbor.

By taking advantage of your kindness, I would like to ask you for a possibility to obtain 語文學 and 中國語文 for this year (from 創刊第3, if possible). I have only fragmentary numbers of these journals. Please excuse me, dear professor, for ^{that} I ask you too much troubles.

Dear professor, I thank you again for your kind generosity. I assure you that I will make good use of the books you have kindly sent me.

With my best wishes for you and your country.

Very truly,

趙承福
